Conclusion

Funds are sufficient in the fiscal year 2018 through fiscal year 2021 budget and financial plan to implement the bill.

Background

The legislation extends¹ the term limit for members of the Public Employee Relations Board from two consecutive terms to three. Serving the remainder of an unexpired term left vacant does not count toward the limit.

The Board consists of five members: a chair, who receives an annual stipend of up to $7,200, and four other members who receive annual stipends of up to $6,000.

Financial Plan Impact

Funds are sufficient in the fiscal year 2018 through fiscal year 2021 budget and financial plan to implement the bill. The legislation does not have a fiscal impact since it does not affect the number of members on the Board or the amount the District pays the members each year.

¹ By amending Section 501(h) of the District of Columbia Comprehensive Merit Personnel Act of 1978, effective March 3, 1979 (D.C. Law 2-139; D.C. Official Code § 1-605.01(h)).
