

Government of the District of Columbia
Office of the Chief Financial Officer

Glen Lee
Chief Financial Officer

MEMORANDUM

TO: The Honorable Phil Mendelson
Chairman, Council of the District of Columbia

FROM: Glen Lee
Chief Financial Officer

DATE: March 30, 2023

SUBJECT: Fiscal Impact Statement – Sam The Man Burns Way Designation Act of 2023

REFERENCE: Bill 25-21, Draft Committee Print as provided to the Office of Revenue Analysis on February 17, 2023

---

Conclusion

Funds are sufficient in the fiscal year 2023 through fiscal year 2026 budget and financial plan to implement the bill.

Background

Sam “The Man” Burns was a leader in the District’s house music scene. Sam DJed at the most prominent District nightclubs, including The Roxy and Eighteenth Street Lounge along 18th Street, N.W. Sam was also a mentor, community organizer, activist, and artist. Sam grew up in Northeast D.C., graduated from Roosevelt High School, and passed away in March 2020.<sup>1</sup>

The bill symbolically designates 18th Street, N.W. from M Street, N.W. to N Street, N.W. as Sam The Man Burns Way.

Financial Plan Impact

Funds are sufficient in the fiscal year 2023 through fiscal year 2026 budget and financial plan to implement the bill. The District Department of Transportation (DDOT) will fabricate and install six signs to symbolically designate the roadway as Sam The Man Burns Way. The signs will cost $1,140 and DDOT can absorb the cost within its existing budgeted resources.
