MEMORANDUM

TO: The Honorable Phil Mendelson
Chairman, Council of the District of Columbia

FROM: Fitzroy Lee
Acting Chief Financial Officer

DATE: May 13, 2022

REFERENCE: Bill 24-229, Committee Print as provided to the Office of Revenue Analysis on April 5, 2022

Conclusion

Funds are not sufficient in the fiscal year 2022 budget and proposed fiscal year 2023 through fiscal year 2025 budget and financial plan to implement the bill. The bill will cost $404,000 in fiscal year 2023 and $1.5 million over the four year financial plan.

Background

The bill amends current law to prohibit discrimination based on homeless status in areas of employment, housing, public accommodations, educational institutions, and motor vehicle insurance sales. Specifically, the bill adds “homeless status” to 14 provisions of law in the Human Rights Act of 1977 and the Office of Human Rights Establishment Act of 1999 (“HRA”). It also expands the definition of “employee” to include independent contractors under the HRA, and it defines harassment and clarifies that it is an unlawful discriminatory practice.

The bill also requires the Office of Human Rights to provide education to law enforcement personnel on topics related to homeless status discrimination.

Financial Plan Impact

---

1 Effective December 13, 1977 (D.C. Law 2-38; D.C. Official Code § 2-1401.01 et seq.)
2 Effective October 20, 1999 (D.C. Official Code § 2-1411.01 et seq.)
Funds are not sufficient in the fiscal year 2022 budget and proposed fiscal year 2023 through fiscal year 2025 budget and financial plan to implement the bill. The bill will cost $404,000 in fiscal year 2023 and $1.5 million over the four year financial plan.

The Office of Human Rights requires three full time positions to implement provisions of the law that include providing education to law enforcement personnel on homeless status discrimination and enforcing the law by collecting and responding to claims of violations of homeless status protections.
