MEMORANDUM

TO:	The Honorable Philip H. Mendelson Chair, Council of the District of Columbia
FROM:	Natwar M. Gandhi Chief Financial Officer
DATE:	June 25, 2012
SUBJECT:	Fiscal Impact Statement – "Meridian Public Charter School-Harrison Campus Property Tax Exemption Amendment Act of 2011"
REFERENCE:	Bill Number 19-577– Draft Committee Print as Shared with the Office of Revenue Analysis on June 19, 2012

Conclusion

Funds are sufficient in the FY 2013 through FY 2016 budget and financial plan to implement the bill.

Background

The bill makes permanent temporary tax exemptions authorized under current law[1] for the Harrison School Campus, located at 2120 13th Street, NW (Lot 814, Square 235).[2] The bill exempts the school from real property and possessory interest taxation so long as it is owned, or occupied under a ground lease, by Meridian Public Charter School or Meridian-Harrison QALICB, Inc. It also exempts the property from recordation and transfer taxation if any portion of it were transferred between Meridian PCS and Meridian-Harrison QALICB, Inc., or a deed of trust with respect to the real property granted by Meridian PCS or Meridian-Harrison QALICB, Inc. to a third party lender.

The property is the former Harrison School. It is owned by the District of Columbia and is exempt from real property taxation. The Meridian PCS plans will operate a charter school on this property after renovations. The District of Columbia Public Schools has executed a ground lease for the property to Meridian PCS, allowing Meridian PCS to assign the ground lease to a Qualified Active Low-Income Community Business (QALICB). The Meridian PCS will occupy the property under a leaseback arrangement. The Meridian PCS formed the QALICB to take advantage of the New Markets Tax Credit program[3] for financing the planned renovation of the Harrison School Campus.

Financial Plan Impact

Funds are sufficient in the FY 2013 through FY 2016 budget and financial plan to implement the proposed legislation. Under current law, DC charter schools are exempt from real property, possessory interest, and recordation taxes.[4]

The bill will have no impact on the District's revenue collection, as, according to the Office of Tax and Revenue, the proposed transaction is not expected to affect the property's tax exempt status. Furthermore, this bill makes permanent the tax exemption currently authorized on an emergency basis under current law.

[4] D.C. Official Code § 38-1802.10(b) exempts public charter schools from DC real property and sales tax. D.C. Official Code § 42-1102(3) states generally that the recordation tax does not apply to deeds to property acquired by an institution entitled to a real property tax exemption under D. C. Official Code § 47-1002(10), which generally applies to non-profit schools embracing the generally recognized relationship of teacher and student.
